Traditional Florentine Cake

Here comes Christmas and the chill of the December air in Florence is sweetened with the enticing aromas of artisan bakers making de' Medici's Bread, Pan de' Medici. This famous Florentine Christmas cake, baked artisanally, is a plain, naturally yeast-leavened, sweet bread perfumed with vanilla. Many competing stories claim to reveal the origins of Pan de' Medici. Some say a young baker invented the cake to impress his lover; others say the sweet cake was invented by a nun to impress her fellow sisters. Whichever it is, it is certainly a labour of love, as making such Cake is not a quick process.

Pan de' Medici can be toasted for breakfast, eaten with coffee, dipped in vin santo for lunch, enjoyed with prosecco for aperitivo, and served as the closer for dinner, along with amaretto. This rich in butter cake is very versatile and can be used also in savory combination, such as truffle, salmon, foil gras or caviar. Enjoy your own Pan de' Medici this festive season.

Whether you're a fan of Spritz cocktail or a lover of cake, this gorgeous Spritz Drunken Panettone ticks all the boxes for a tipsy festive treat. A traditional Italian sweet bread loaf that's soft and delicious, panettone is a lovely, lighter alternative to a traditional Christmas cake. Infused with the unique flavour of the most Italian Cocktail, it brings together both traditional and modern flavours to create a wonderfully moist and properly boozy cake that's perfect for sharing with friends and family. Presented in a beautifully giftwrapped box, it would make a lovely gift for any Italian foodie or cocktail lover. Why not try serving with orange sorbet or a vanilla ice cream for a grown-up dessert, or create a fabulously boozy bread-and-butter pudding also for creative aperitif.

Our Gin Infused Panettone has been awarded as INDYBEST as the best panettone in the UK market following the reviews of the newspaper Independent

Monday 11 November 2019

The texture is springy and pillowy soft with just the right level of moistness without being too sticky. It holds its shape well, is easy to slice and tastes subtly of juniper crossed with citrus. Very moreish and it's so light you'll easily need another slice.

Borgo de' Medici

Borgo de' Medici is a family-run company dedicated to producing a series of food specialties made in Tuscany and to promoting these gems, by distributing them with own trademark, in Italy and throughout the world. Our philosophy can be summed up in two simple words

"Living Tuscany"

For Borgo de' Medici, Tuscany has always been the starting point. All our raw materials, and culinary techniques originate within this territory, an area that has always supported history and traditions linked to the creation and exchange of handcrafted products. Our products represent a unique heritage that spotlights quality and variety. They are the result of an extraordinarily high level of handcrafted expertise which is quite difficult to achieve. Thus, these products are truly representative of a distinct territorial and historical identity.

Great to eat and interesting to think about.

We Defend and Promote the Tuscan Gastronomic Heritage

Borgo de' Medici (Translation: Village of the Medici Family) The Story...

The Medici family ruled the city of Florence in the region of Tuscany from 1433 until 1756. Every time a Tuscan village or town was conquered by the Florentine Army, a stone stamp marker with the Medici House symbol was put in evidence on the wall of the town or on the city hall building and the village became officially a "Borgo de' Medici".

The Medici family had a major influence on the growth of the Italian Renaissance through their patronage and support of the arts, the humanities and the development of modern Italian cuisine. To honor this historic heritage, in 1999 Massimo Pugi and his family founded Borgo de' Medici Delizie Toscane in Prato (Tuscany). Working with some of the best artisans, farmers and beekeepers of the region, he developed a complete line of authentic Tuscan fine food creating an ideal village (Borgo) of specialty foods (the biscotti from the bakery, the extra virgin olive oil from the olive mill, the fruit preserve from the kitchen with copper pots...)

Over the past 18 years, Borgo de' Medici has grown and developed into a multinational company, with products now available in fine specialty stores in more than 30 countries. All of the products come from farms and workshops located in zones of specialization, and are owned by or associated with Borgo de' Medici. And now, we bring to you Borgo de' Medici USA Inc., a 100% family owned subsidiary created to import and directly distribute the Borgo de' Medici line to specialty stores in the USA just as it is distributed in the Old World...

Our mission is to become the leading purveyor of Tuscan fine food in the world, respected for the outstanding quality of our products, their presentation and authenticity. We are committed to educating, inspiring and communicating the quality, the originality, the values and the lifestyle of Borgo de' Medici and the Tuscan countryside.
